Agreement

1. Please ensure that you read this agreement carefully, as not only does it form the legal relationship between us, but it also provides useful information about the practical side of your sessions. When you sign this agreement (or if you fail to do so, by attending the first session) this document will constitute a legally binding agreement between us.

Your health

2. We are not medical professionals and cannot advise on whether you should join the sessions or not. If you have any concerns at all about your health and undertaking the classes, you should consult your doctor or other medical professional. You should notify us at the outset of any medical conditions that you have or any concerns that you have about participating in the sessions. If we have concerns about your health and/or ability to participate in the sessions, we may require you to stop the session. If you feel uncomfortable with anything during the session, feel unwell or in pain, it is your responsibility to alert the Instructor as soon as possible.

3. Please be aware that Rossiter Stretching Technique involves the application of weight from the Practitioner/Coach via their foot or arm, and accept that the Practitioner/Coach will have to apply this weight in order to do the treatment. As the client, you are responsible for informing the Practitioner/Coach of the extent of the weight tolerated and to clearly state ‘stop’ to the Practitioner/Coach when the weight has reached the appropriate level.

It is important not exceed the limits of any activity that you are accustomed to for 48 hours post the session, nor start any new physical activities in this time frame.
